

Duncan Mugford

2855 Apalachee Pkwy 208E • Tallahassee, 32301 • duncanjmug@gmail.com • (813)731-6238

Education

- Florida State University- Master's Science in Applied Economics
Relevant Coursework: Analysis of Economic Data (R), Professional Development, SAS for Economists, Applied Microeconomics, Applied Econometrics
Expected Graduation Date: Summer 2022
- Florida State University- Bachelor's Science in Economics, GPA 3.8
Relevant Coursework: Econometrics, Health Economics
Graduated: July 2021

Experience:

- City of Tallahassee- Grants Management Department Intern
 - Period: 2021 May- 2021 August, Tallahassee, FL
 - Constant usage and analysis of data from grant proposals and awards, grew accustomed to reading through government language
 - Communicated effectively within my department, as well as constant cooperation with other departments in order to obtain all necessary grant information
 - Analyzed grants to ensure that applications would fit requirements
 - Assisted in maintaining the image of a respected institution
- Florida State University- Teaching Assistant
 - Period: 2021 August- 2022 April, Tallahassee, FL
 - Accomplish grading assignments in a timely and effective manner
 - Maintaining the professional image of professor responsible for my work
 - Offer constructive feedback to help students improve their understanding and abilities

Projects

- Cost/Benefit Analysis of Florida Voluntary Pre-K Program

Conducted an analysis of possible expansion of the Florida VPK program to 3 year olds. Project was completed over an entire summer, in a group format. Final verdict was in favor of expansion due to the analyzed per child cost and benefit of each child added in expansion. Report and oral presentation recording available on request.

Skills

Working Experience: R, SAS, Stata SE, Microsoft Word, Python

Skills: Time Management, Crisis Management, Ability to Adapt and Learn Skills as needed

Reference:

- Professor Doug Norton danorton@fsu.edu
Economics professor at Florida State University
Experience in Private sector as well as in research papers

Relation: TA under Professor Norton for Economics of State and Local Government, and Intermediate Microeconomics